

Learning Together Northwest Ltd

Working to build an inclusive society

About us

We are a social enterprise. The money we make goes to develop new projects and supports the work we do in building an inclusive society.

We focus on training and consultancy work aimed at breaking down barriers, building disability awareness and equality.

All trainers are experts by experience and have first-hand understanding of the issues involved.

The group has over 10 years' experience working together, developing and presenting training.
